Major McKinley Thinks the People of the Country are Tired of the Agitation of the Tariff Question.

London Press Comments on the Obio Election-The Civil Service Reform League Commends Secretary Tracy-The Railway Employes in the Iowa Campaign-Complexion of the New York Assembly-Notes

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—In an interview today with a Tribune reporter, Col. A. L. Conger of Ohio, a member of the Republican of Ohio, a member of the Republican national committee, gave a bit of interesting history. He said that he happened to be present when Garfield received the message from the senate clamber to the effect that Senator Conkling had resigned his sent. He (Conger) expressed great regret and said that he was afraid that it would split the Republican party and defeat Garfield's renomination.

President Garfield replied: "Do not be alarmed. We shall develop a policy during my administration which will make the Republican party more popular with the people than it has been since the day of its birth."

Shortly afterward, continued Colonel

day of its birth."

Shortly afterward, continued Colonel Conger, he and Major McKiniey called on Scoretary Blaine. Mr. Bla ne outlin d his pians for a Pan-American congress and his policy of reciprocity, which he intended to put into effect during Garfield's administration. Soon afterwards Garfield was assassinated and all these plans were thwarted.

"I have no doubt," continued Colonel Conger, "that if Garfield had lived the same policy which Blaine has now inaugurated under President Harrison would have been fully carried out by him under President Garfield. It is this wonderfully practical, fur-seeing statesmanship that LONDON, Nov. 5 —The Globe says, referring to the elections just held in the United States: "They prove beyond a doubt that there is a popular reaction in favor of the McKinley larid. The Republican success in other states can only mean that the tariff has not been found to work so badly as at first imagined. The mischief wrought British industries will, moreover, help to convince the American voter that it must somehow be of good to himself. We should thus make a great mistake if we look confidently for a Democratic triumph in 1822 and for the avandomment of the prohibitive duties.

The Pall Mall Gazette says that the result of the elections "clears the field for a distinct trial of the strength of Mr. Harrison and Mr. Cleveland, with a strong probability that Mr. Cleveland will win. The Daily News says: "It is not necessary to draw a moral where most important contests yield diametrically opposite. say to draw a moral water most impor-tant contests yield diametrically opposite results. the side of the Republicans, who may hope by October to take advantage of some Democratic mistake or some suggestion of policy on the part of the government to reverse the decision now recorded."

The Times says: "It is possible that a Democratic victory in Onio would not have pleased all sections of that party because it would have foreshadowed a schism at next year's convention. It is doubtful whether McKinley's achievement is striking enough to vindicate his policy or to advance his claims to the presidential nomination. It may be taken for granted that the result of the elections will thrust into the background the United States' policy of bullying Chili."

"New York, Oct. 29, 1891,

"Sire—We were directed by the National Civil Service Reform league, at its late annual meeting in Buffalo, respectfully to transmit to you a copy of the enclosed resolution adopted by the league. Very respectfully,

"George William Curitis, President.

"William Protis, Secretary."

"The league declares its high appreciation of the great and patriotic services rendered to the country and to the interests of reform by the secretary of the navy by his prompt, comprehensive and thorough application of sound principles of administration in the selection both of skilled and unskilled employes in the national navy yards, which have been hitherto the scenes of the worst excesses of the spoils system. The league trusts that this great measure of reform will be secured permanently by an executive order, which alone can make it a part of the general system under the law administered by the national civil service commission." by the national civil service commissi

THE NEXT CAMPAIGN.

THE NEXT CAMPAIGN.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5—A. L. Conger, member of the national Republican committee from Obio, thinks that the time has now arrived to talk about the candidates for the next presidential campaign. He believes that the national committee, which meets at Washington on the 23d of November, will consider the matter of candidates, and adds: "Then we shall see what wo shall see. Perhaps we shall know something then."

Regarding the dispatches from Ohio in-timating very strongly that an attempt would be made to keep Senator-elect Brice from taking his seat and electing a Repub-lican in his place, Colonei Conger said that he did not believe any such move would be maile. "It would be very unwise to doso," he said. "Senator Brice was elected square-ly by a Democratic legislature, and as for his being a non-resident of Ohio, there is nothing in it. Senator Brice is the best man for the place, and, as his election was open and fair, it would be next to impos-sible to carry through any such scheme to sible to carry through any such scheme to keep him out of the office."

HEARING THE NEWS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The irony of chance made the Farmers' Alliance and the Knight of Reciprocity near neighbors election day. Colonel Polk and his associates assembled in rooms to bear the returns. In the hall above them the Knights were gathered for a similar purpose. The Knighthood of Reciprocity is a Kansas product, developed as a Republican counter rritant to the Alliance. On this occasion the Knights were on top. When the Farmers' Alliance people came together they found that the telegraph companies had made no provisions for furnishing to them the news. The Knights had a special wire and an operator, they also had a lantern with which they threw the news of various kinds upon a screen out in the street for the benefit of a big crowd. The Alliance people could hear the knights celebrating, they would look out of the window and see the news upon the screen, but unfortunately the positions were such that the Alliance people were forced to read that the saliance and the results another political uphenval of an important officials at Ricide Janetro, and a constant correspondent of the most important officials at Ricide Janetro, as the following to say relative to the troubles in Brazil. Rio DE JANEIRO, Nov. 5.—It is officially announced that the president has convened the nation to elect new representatives. The federal capital (Rio de Janeiro) and the town of Nichteroy (or Praia Grande), five miles east of the capital, have been declared in a state of siege for two months. The president has been provoked to take these steps by the proceedings of congress and by the efforts of the promoters of the restoration of the monarchy to overturn republican institutions. The president has been provoked to take these steps by the proceedings of congress and by the efforts of the promoters of the restoration of the monarchy to overturn republican institutions. The president, in his manifesto, declares himself fully justified in taking the steps referred to. The army and navy support the government, and the public tranquility, according to the official announcement, is perfect throughout the states. In conclusion, it is said that the government is ready to maintain order by every means; that the maintain order by every means; that the maintain order by every means; that the maintain order by every means; that the

that she will recover.

CORE, Nov. & —On the eve of the poil in Cork canvassing is carried on with re doubled energy. An unbiased forecast shows that the result will probably be in favor of the anti-Parnellites by a majority of 200.

Mr. O'Brien, in a speech this evening, said that the Redmond and Harrington manifesto was a tissue of grotesque false-hoods. Imagine, he said, four Irish members of parliament asking the Irish bishops to withdraw their letter and to repeal the sixth commandment. The only existing copy of the Boulogne proceedings was in the hands of Parnell's representatives. It was a lie to say that he had a second copy and destroyed it. It was equally a lie to say that they offered Parnell the right to veto a home rule bill.

Late tonight a crowd of Parnellites attacked and stoned a body of McCarthyites parading in Winthrop street, singing "God Save Ireland." The McCarthyites field to the bridge, where they turned and faced their pursuers. Each side showered missiles upon the other, but eventually the Parnellites captured the bridge about the same time that a detachment of police arrived, who, after some difficulty, succeeded in dispersing the rioters. Many persons were cut with atones.
